

MAD RIVER BOAT TRIPS

LOCATION: Located in Jackson Hole Valley in northwestern Wyoming, south of Yellowstone National Park and Grand Teton National Park

ABOUT MAD RIVER BOAT TRIPS:

Mad River is the ticket to exploring the wild and scenic Snake River. Whether with family or friends, Snake River rafting will be the highlight of any trip to Jackson Hole. Professional and experienced river trip guides navigate rafters through the twists and turns of Snake River Canyon while pointing out flora, fauna, geology and aspects of the region's history that make this area unique.

Mad River Boat Trips' whitewater experiences through the Snake River Canyon offer class II and III rapids, making them appropriate for (almost) all ages. Guests will grab their paddle and shoot the rapids with Mad River's experienced and professional guides.

For a more leisurely trip down the river, Mad River's scenic floats are guide-powered so guests can relax and enjoy the scenery. The 13-mile stretch of braided river is home to an array of wildlife and is especially rich in bird life. Float trips represents a great way for families to enjoy the great outdoors together and make lasting memories in an exciting but relaxing atmosphere.

Groups bookings are welcome, including those for family reunions, weddings, corporate groups or charters.
