

PARRY LODGE FACT SHEET

LOCATION: 89 E. Center Street, Kanab, Utah 84741

ABOUT PARRY LODGE: Parry Lodge was founded by the Parry Brothers, Whitney, Gronway and Chauncey. In 1931 in the middle of southern Utah's most scenic wonders, the Parry brothers purchased a large colonial-style home and turned it into a tourist lodge and restaurant in the town of Kanab.

In the golden age of Hollywood, Parry Lodge hosted "A-list" movie stars, including John Wayne, Frank Sinatra, Gregory Peck, Maureen O'Hara, Olivia De Havilland and Clint Eastwood. Parry Lodge was in a prime location for filmmaking, attracting moviemakers and movie stars for more than 50 years. Parry Lodge has hosted hundreds of movie crews over the years and continues to be an iconic location for crews coming to southern Utah.

Before there were online travel agencies and travel concierge, Whit Parry would help coordinate shoot locations, transportation, food, lodging, and even livestock such as horses and cattle. The Parry brothers would arrange for entertainment, tours, dances, parties, and even boxing matches to entertain the talent and crews during their down time.

Today, Forever Resorts' own Parry Lodge. Visitors receive the same standard of quality in the carefully appointed rooms and restaurant. The property is conveniently situated for day trips to the north rim of the Grand Canyon, Zion National Park, Bryce Canyon and the Grand Staircase - Escalante and Pipe Springs National Monuments.
