

GENERAL FACT SHEET

ABOUT DESERT RANCH EXPERIENCE:

Desert Ranch Experience by Camel Safari offers a distinctive outdoor destination for conservation-focused animal encounters, as well as daytime and overnight “glamping” experiences inside authentic Mongolian gers. Situated on 176 acres along the Virgin River 80 minutes north of Las Vegas, the ranch provides the perfect retreat for daytime excursions and overnight stays. Guests may enjoy daytime lounge areas and overnight sleeping accommodations inside their own private, authentic, climate-controlled Mongolian ger. Catered meals prepared onsite at the ranch may be delivered to guests’ private gers or enjoyed on one of the open-air picnic tables. Desert Ranch Experiences may include up-close animal encounters with the destination’s more than 30 camels and other exotic animal species, including alpacas, a llama, armadillos, African crested porcupine, a two-toed sloth and more. The ranch’s exclusive and unforgettable location offers a picturesque desert landscape perfect for weddings, family reunions, corporate retreats, bachelor and bachelorette parties, birthday parties and more.

ANIMAL INFORMATION:

- Bactrian Camels - Desert Ranch Experience provides a nurturing habitat for 12 of approximately 400 Bactrian camels in North America. Known for their high intelligence and the two large humps on their backs, Bactrian camels have long, brown fur and can weigh over 2,000 pounds. They are associated with the deserts of Northern Central Asia.
- Dromedary Camels - 22 Dromedary camels also call Desert Ranch Experience home. Dromedary camels only have one hump, are associated with the Sahara Desert and thrive in semi-arid to arid regions such as Southern Nevada.

- Two-Toed Sloth - Desert Ranch Experience is home to a female two-toed sloth named “Ambien.” Two-toed sloths one of the world’s slowest mammals and are native to Central and South American rain forests. They spend most of their time hanging upside down.
- African Crested Porcupine – “Thorn” is Desert Ranch Experience’s female African Crested Porcupine. She is covered in coarse quills ranging from one to 13 inches long and is native to the deserts of Africa.
- Woolly Opossum - Desert Ranch Experience is home to “Menchie,” a male woolly opossum. He weighs less than a pound and has a large stripe on his face. Woolly opossums are nocturnal animals native to subtropical forests and rainforests in South America.
- Alpacas - There are currently 6 Huacaya alpacas living on the ranch. Native to Peru, Chile and Bolivia, Huacayas are known for their warm, fluffy fleece.
- Llamas - Desert Ranch Experience is also home to 1 llama. Llamas are extremely social animals and typically live in large groups. They originate from the mountains, grasslands and deserts of South America.
- Six-Banded Armadillo - Female sisters “Piper” and “Brooklyn” are Desert Ranch Experience’s six-banded armadillos. Known for having thick, hard skin covered by bony plates. They hail from the dry grasslands and forests of South America.

MONGOLIAN GERS:

Desert Ranch Experience features ten authentic Mongolian gers. Comprised of lattice walls and flexible beams covered in fabric, these circular, tent-pole shelters were handcrafted in Mongolia. Well-suited for the traditional Mongolian nomadic lifestyle, gers are easy to assemble, disassemble and transport on Bactrian Camels. Each ger can accommodate two to four people and features two curved beds and hand-painted Mongolian furniture. Modern amenities include climate-controlled, a mini-fridge and lighting.

THINGS TO DO:

- Up-Close Camel Experience - Experience Bactrian and Dromedary camels up close while learning about their fascinating adaptations and origins, training, personality traits and favorite foods. Ample photo opportunities are provided.

- Exotic Animal Tour – Opportunity to come face-to-face with Desert Ranch Experience’s two-toed sloth, six-banded armadillos, African crested porcupine and brown-eared woolly opossums.
- Vintage Army Truck Excursion – For an unforgettable ride and breathtaking views of the ranch and animals, guests can climb aboard the vintage Army truck. With troop seating, the Army truck provides a fun photo opportunity for friends and families. This activity is weather permitted.
- Camel Snuggle Session – Desert Ranch Experience’s camel snuggle sessions provide the perfect opportunity for guests to hug a camel’s hump. The ranch’s camels love attention and human interaction. Upon request, camels can be groomed beforehand if guests wish not to brush the animals.
- Fiber Crafts – With some of the finest fiber in the world, Bactrian camel hair is highly sought after to make clothing, ropes, rugs and jewelry. After brushing a Bactrian camel, guests are invited to create camel hair friendship bracelets. This activity is ideal for kids’ parties, corporate events and bachelorette parties.
- Ger Building - The ultimate team building experience. Gers are one of the most spiritual dwellings of Mongolia, allowing inhabitants to be one with the nature surrounding them. Building an authentic ger shipped directly from Mongolia provides a unique, once in a lifetime opportunity. With the help of the ranch’s staff, groups can assemble a ger (weather permitting) and have the chance to stay overnight in the spiritual dwelling they built, while overlooking the scenic Mojave Desert and the ranch’s animals. This adult-only activity is not included in the tour options but can be added for an additional fee.
- Farm Fit – Guests can experience a true physical work out by performing tasks associated with a working farm.
- Guided Nocturnal Animal Tour – Guests can take an evening tour of the ranch’s nocturnal animals that come out to play in the dark including: the brown-eared woolly opossum, hedgehog as well as “Ambien” the female sloth.
- Stargazing – With minimal light pollution, the dark night sky offers a memorable self-guided stargazing experience. Use the ranch's telescopes and count falling stars all night long.

- Epic Bonfires with S'mores - The perfect bonfire complete with s'mores is available to enjoy all night long. This event is weather permitted.

AGE REQUIREMENT: Guests of all ages are welcome to visit. For adult day glamping experiences, visitors must be at least 21 years old.
