

National Museum of Organized Crime & Law Enforcement®

FACT SHEET: GLOBAL NETWORKS OF ORGANIZED CRIME

DESCRIPTION: Featuring artifacts, graphics and a large, interactive, 17-foot-wide touchscreen wall, this exhibit tells the story of 21st century organized crime rackets—illegal enterprises that span the globe and profit off everything from drug and human trafficking to product counterfeiting, money laundering and cybercrime. While most of the Museum covers the intriguing history of organized crime and its battle with law enforcement through decades, Organized Crime Today addresses contemporary iterations of this illegal activity. The exhibit addresses the most prominent organized crime groups active in the world today and explores the complexities of organized crime with up-to-the-minute developments pulled from the day’s headlines. Exhibits and corresponding digital content on the Museum’s website (themobmuseum.org) will be regularly updated to reflect the latest global organized crime developments.

LAUNCH DATE: February 14, 2018

DURATION: Tour of Organized Crime Today is self-guided and takes 30 to 60 minutes.
