ABOUT “WINK
WORLD: PORTALS
INTO THE INFINITE”:

Psychedelic art house meets carnival fun house at “Wink World: Portals Into The Infinite,” located inside AREA15, Las Vegas’ new immersive art and entertainment district. Chris Wink, co-founder of Blue Man Group, developed Wink World as his most ambitious art and entertainment project since departing Blue Man Group in 2017. The 1,500-square-foot experience takes the entertaining fusion of whimsy, color, art, technology and music he pioneered with Blue Man Group to the next level. Wink World comprises a series of six infinity-mirror rooms, each one showcasing a stunning production number drawing upon Wink’s love of black light and other dazzling stage effects designed to evoke “life force” and inspire wonder. Wink’s penchant for transforming everyday objects into art or entertainment provides his delightful brand of dynamism to the experience, as ceiling fans transform into kinetic art and children’s toys like Slinkies and Hoberman Spheres become elevated into a chorus line of dancers and entertainers.
