ABOUT “PARTICLE INK: SPEED OF DARK”:

“Particle Ink: Speed of Dark” is an original, mind-bending mixed-reality experience bringing visitors through a portal into the 2.5th dimension. Sprung from the inventive minds of The LightPoets, “Speed of Dark” combines street art, live performances and never-before-seen technology to transport visitors into a living graphic novel. Illustrations literally leap from the walls to foretell the events changing the lives of the Artist and his wife Lilith to all who enter.

THE LIGHTHOUSE:

A once crumbling and abandoned warehouse in the Las Vegas 18b Arts District has become a portal into another dimension. After light from the 2.5th dimension spilled into it, the LightHouse became a beacon – drawing humans and lumins alike to the kaleidoscopic playground that lies within.

PARENT COMPANY:

Kaleidoco is an entertainment and technology company built for Web3 experiences. The organization was created to engage and inspire people around the globe through an original mixed-reality metaverse and innovative technologies enhancing human connection. Kaleidoco defines the next generation of Web3 by blending the digital metaverse into the physical and building community-based experiences utilizing augmented reality, artificial intelligence and spatial computing technology.
